International Organizations in Nashville

African-American Cultural Alliance (http://www.aacanashville.org/) works in the Nashville community to promote African culture with a variety of cultural and educational outreach events.

Lwala Community Alliance (http://lwalacommunityalliance.org/) is a non-profit health and development agency that works in Kenya and has a strong Vanderbilt connection – many of the Lwala workers and volunteers are Vanderbilt alumni!

Chinese Arts Alliance of Nashville (http://www.chineseartsalliance.org/) presents a variety of different Chinese arts (visual, performing) and culture to the public and hosts a variety of workshops on top of their exhibitions.

Global Education Center Nashville (http://www.globaleducationcenter.net/) is a multicultural arts education center located on Charlotte Pike that offers a variety of multicultural events and classes, including dance, drumming, and dialogues.

India Association of Nashville (http://www.iantn.org/) is a cultural and social organization that promotes the arts, languages, and culture of Indian culture in Nashville.

Nashville Kangaroos (http://nashvillekangaroos.org/about) uses Australian football and social events to connect Aussies with Nashvillians.

Scottish Society of Middle TN (http://www.midtnscots.org/about/) is dedicated to all things Scottish and hosts events including Scottish feasts and dancing! They also maintain a database of more specific Scottish-type clubs (bagpiping, anyone?).
Sister Cities Nashville (http://www.scnashville.org/) connects Nashvillians to people around the world! This is also another way to go abroad again, post-graduation!

TN Tamil Sangam (http://tenntamil.org/) The goal is to promote understanding of Tamil culture of India and to get to know the Tamil speaking community in Tennessee.

TN World Affairs Council (http://www.tnwac.org/) promotes the understanding of international issues throughout the community, especially in schools. They host events and provide information on how to be active in an international realm.